

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of how Big Media is suffocating journalism and democracy itself.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. One sided programs do not serve the public interest it serves Sinclair's interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them even further. Thank you. Joan Baran
